March 7, 2013

Dear OPRA Data Recipients:

Mini-Options are scheduled to begin trading on March 18th, 2013. OPRA will be supporting exchange testing on Saturday, March 9th, from approximately 8am to 12pm ET with data dissemination over the Production channels. If any of the OPRA exchanges generate mini-options data into OPRA the data will be pass downstream to the multicast data recipients.

Mini-Options symbols will be:

- AAPL7
- AMZN7
- GLD7
- GOOG7
- SPY7

Questions regarding the test itself should be sent to the participating exchanges.

Thank you

John Tornatore
